Re: Benson v. Lehman Brothers, Inc. 1:04-cv-7323
Request for Adjournment of Case Management Conf.

Dear Judge Cote:

I am presently counsel for the plaintiff, Doreen L. Benson, in the above-captioned matter and am hereby requesting a four week adjournment of a case management conference that was scheduled by the Court for January 6, 2005.

- (1) I received an email from the court stating that there would be a Case Management Conference on this matter on January 6, 2005 in Courtroom 11B.
- (2) There have been no previous requests for adjournment or extension in this matter.
- (3) N/A.
- (4) I do not know whether or not my adversary consents to this request for two reasons. First, I have not yet even served my adversary, Lehman Brothers, Inc., with the complaint; but do have reason to believe that they are aware of the suit. Second, I am not even aware that Lehman Brothers, Inc. is aware of this case management conference because the email that I received did not appear to copy my adversary on the case management conference notification (a copy of which attached herein).

(5) There are no other scheduled dates that would be affected by this adjournment request.

Thank you very much for your kind consideration of this request.

Sincerely yours,

Lewis D. Thompson
